

Sparkling Curiosity

No pitches. No elevators. Using small talk to spark interest in others through shared values.

Small Talk: Turn networking time into a moment that establishes affinity. This is a 90-second narrative about what you do and how your passion makes a difference.

What do you do?

- Verb of your skill set/role/job/talent
- Not job title
- What doesn't get done if you don't show up?
- How would you explain your expertise to a person outside your industry?

Why do you care?

- You can't say you don't. You can't say the money.
- Instead, consider what in you is affirmed in this work?
- Which of your values does it let you live out?
- Start your sentence with: "I'm really passionate about this because:" OR "I really care because..."

How do you make a difference for the customer/client/audience/constituency?

- When you are best at your job, what happens?
- Start your sentence with: "When I'm doing my best..."

Megan Finnerty is a professional storyteller and journalist. Learn more about how she can help you at meganmfinnerty.com.